BUSINESS MANAGER REPORT

Ms. Ellen Lane presented the Board with copies of the General Fund Budget-to-Actual Report for May 2026 and the check register. She noted that a few financial transfers had occurred during the month of May.

Ms. Lane also presented the Renovations and Construction Budget-to-Actual Report ending May 2026. She noted that the remaining bond payment will be transferred in June 2026.

Following her presentation, Ms. Lane addressed questions from several Board members and then concluded her report.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. John Gullatt stated that the Governor had issued an Executive Order concerning teacher and staff raises, noting that the raises will be taken from school districts' Minimum Foundation Program (MFP) funding. He also stated that MFP funds have not been properly funded for years. He added that a study has been initiated and a specific time limit has been set.

With no further items to address, Mr. Gullatt concluded his report.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Dr. Johnson expressed her deep disappointment regarding the failure of the tax renewal, noting that these funds are greatly needed to support teachers, staff, and students. She emphasized that the renewal will be brought before the public again in the future and expressed her hope that the community will support it.

With no further comments, Dr. Johnson concluded the President's Report.
